

K-LOVE helps my community by giving me a religious view on various topic in the current "Mainstream" news media. It also provides a format to promote Christain values thru Christain music.

If displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing some other type of programing, I feel that those wanting and needing the programing type that K-LOVE provides would become disinfranchaised with the FCC.